

The T-Ross Brothers Construction, Inc. Scholarship Fund is for students who plan to pursue a degree in a construction-related field of study and the Taylor J. Ertel Fund for Foster Children is available to students that have been or are currently in foster care.

The application is available through the online web portal
<https://www.fcfpartnership.org/apply/scholarships>.

Students will create a user profile, fill in the application online, and once they choose if they are a foster child or going into construction they will be prompted to choose either of those awards.

The deadline to submit an application for the T-Ross Brothers Construction award is April 1.

Applications are accepted for the Taylor J. Ertel award throughout the year.
