The four day camp is designed around teaching the fundamentals of basketball. The participants will learn proper shooting form, dribbling drills, passing, individual/team defense, boxing out, footwork, and much more

Everything is age-appropriate including ball size and height of hoops. Following the program will allow the participants to add skills each year in preparation for organized basketball.

While this camp's focus is built on developing skills, we will still make time to integrate some fun while using the skills we learn at the camp.

The staff for the camp will be headed up by Coach Keiser; Boys Varsity Coach and the remaining staff, Varsity Basketball players, and some volunteers who have a background in coaching and basketball.
