Meeting Location: SAIS LGI

1. Call to Order – Denise Hubbert

- Two Motions for Minute approval

2. Principal's Report –Ms. Garman

- Parent teacher conferences were a success
- Food Drive has kicked off this week and donations can be made at the front entrance lobby through Dec 10th. Flyers were sent home and published online of various items that could be donated, for Transitions of PA and Meals for Seals. Additionally, Rudy Gelnett Memorial Library Tree Fest also kicking off and donations from SAIS 4th grade to Danville SPCA are very much appreciated. All grades have entered a tree, feel free to visit the library and check them out.
- New Guidance counselor, Kara Freed starts 11/12/2025. She will be the SASD 2nd and 3rd grade school counselor.

3. RARE Student of the Month

- October Presentation & Awards with Seal Mascot present.

4. President's Report

- Update was given on Gertrude Hawk Holiday Fundraiser. Paper Orders collected as of yesterday, 11/10. Online orders can still be made through the website with shipping to homes — until Dec. 7th. Orders to arrive that week and will need volunteers for sorting and distribution.
- Fall Festival: very positive update and feedback given on the first, indoor fall festival in almost a decade.
- Winter planning: The annual Holiday send off, sponsored by Pleasant Valley Greenhouse and gifts. Spirited parent volunteers will be at the SAIS entrances (Front and back) the Friday before winter break: in holiday costumes, passing out candy canes. There will not be a dodgeball tournament. A cold weather gear drive is being organized, partnering with Mr. Legg, school counselor, to help SEAL students in need. Flyer to come home and be socialized.
- Seal Sprint: 5/13, rain date 5/14: volunteers needed and more information to come after the new year
- Field Day: 5/27, rain date 5/28: volunteers need and more information to come after the new year
- Open Comment Time: Feedback/Questions
